

Get the most from your Score Analysis

Print out your Score Analysis for any test(s) not passed (place into a folder).

Obtain the appropriate Test Plan(s) (on NBCE Website).

Review the subcategories of all yellow and red categories (Parts I & II, PHT).

For Part III, review the descriptions of the problematic categories.

MyNBCE Home | www.mynbce.org | Logout | Contact Us

NBCE
NATIONAL BOARD OF CHIROPRACTIC EXAMINERS

My Account
My Scores
My Applications
My Exam Information
My Orders

My Score Analysis

September 2015 Failing Score Analysis

Examinee: [REDACTED] Examinee ID: [REDACTED] Board Score: 370

Exam: Part III

Rating of Content Knowledge:
1 = Insufficient (Red) | 2 = Borderline (Yellow) | 3 = Sufficient (Green)

Weight	Category	Rating
11%	Case History	3
9%	Physical Examination	2
11%	Neuromusculoskeletal Examination	1
11%	Diagnostic Imaging	3
7%	Clinical Laboratory and Special Studies	2
14%	Diagnosis or Clinical Impression	2
14%	Chiropractic Techniques	3
8%	Supportive Interventions	1
15%	Case Management	1

This Score Analysis is provided to assist your preparations for future examinations. Test Plans for all NBCE examinations and other useful information (such as lists of reference texts and links to sample tests) are available at www.mynbce.org.

Privacy Policy | Copyright Information

Strategic preparations for your Retake

Prepare a study schedule for the yellow and red categories.

Consider the categories' weights when planning your study time.

Obtain notes, study guides, and textbooks covering problem areas.

Outline, or otherwise make personal handwritten notes of material.

Use test questions to measure your knowledge and comprehension.

Have someone ask you questions about recently studied material.