

THE NBCE IS OFFERING
$10,000 TOTAL IN PRIZES:
FIVE AWARDS OF $2000 EACH

$2000 Essay Competition

Deadline extended: ~~August 1, 2017~~ October 1, 2017

Student Eligibility

1. Enrolled in a US, CCE-accredited, chiropractic program.
2. In good academic standing and passed all of NBCE Part I.

Contest Instructions

1. Submit an original essay on any chiropractic humanities topic: history, philosophy, practice perspectives, jurisprudence/law, ethics, theory, sociology, politics, and all aspects of science or social sciences that address historical or philosophical topics. Examples available at:
<http://www.journalchirohumanities.com>
2. Email 3 items:
 - a. An original scholarly essay, submitted a Word doc, no more than 3500 words (may be fewer, word count does not include references) format: title page with student contact information, introduction, discussion, conclusion, and references.
 - b. Letter of recommendation from a faculty member or administrator.
 - c. Letter from registrar, with proof of enrollment and good academic standing.
3. The essay will be judged by blinded reviewers. Criteria: relevance to the chiropractic profession, scholarly style, quality of writing, originality, and use of references. Announcements will be made by December 31, 2017.
4. Only one essay is allowed per student per competition and only one author per essay. Students who submitted or won in the past may compete again.
5. Email to NBCEstudentscholarship@gmail.com by October 1, 2017.

The NBCE Scholarship competition is administered by an outside corporation, Brighthall. All questions about the competition should be directed to Dr. Claire Johnson at NBCEstudentscholarship@gmail.com