

Attention Examinees

The only items you are allowed to bring into the testing rooms are two forms of identification and a key to your car (no fobs).

These items are not permitted in the testing rooms:

- Any of the items pictured, or similar items
- Bags, purses, and wallets
- Caps / hats, head wraps, and neck scarves
- Cell phones or any electronic devices
- Watches and Fitbits
- Jewelry including wrist bands, brooches, lapel pins, tie clips, necklaces, and bracelets of any kind
- Hair ties must remain in place during the entire exam, and may not be worn on the wrist
- Sunglasses
- Pocket knives
- Food, drink, gum, candy, and cough drops
- Lip balm, lipstick, etc.
- Tissues
- Key fobs
- Pens / pencils
- Books / magazines
- Any other item that may be questioned by security personnel

You must pass through security screening before entering the testing rooms. Security personnel will check all pockets and hoodies. If you bring any prohibited items, personnel will bag them and keep them during the exam. The NBCE is not responsible for lost or stolen items.
