

THE NBCE IS OFFERING
$10,000 TOTAL IN PRIZES:
FIVE AWARDS OF $2000 EACH

$2000 Essay Competition

Submissions begin: April 1, 2018

Deadline: October 1, 2018

Student Eligibility

1. Enrolled in a US, CCE-accredited, chiropractic program at any time during 2018.
2. In good academic standing and passed all of NBCE Part I by October 1, 2018.

Contest Instructions

1. Submit an original essay on any humanities topic relevant to chiropractic, which includes: history, philosophy, practice perspectives, jurisprudence/law, ethics, theory, sociology, politics, or social sciences. Examples of articles with humanities topics available at: <http://www.journalchirohumanities.com>
2. To enter the competition, submit 3 items by email:
 - a. An original essay, submitted as a Word document. Maximum 3500 words, may be fewer, word count does not include references. Include title page with student name, cell phone, and email.
 - b. Letter of recommendation from a faculty member or administrator.
 - c. Letter from registrar confirming enrollment and good academic standing.
3. Judging criteria: relevance to the chiropractic profession, scholarly style, writing quality, originality, and use of references. Announcements of winning essays will be made by December 31, 2018.
4. Only one essay is allowed per student per competition and only one author per essay. Students who submitted or won in the past may compete again.
5. Email materials to NBCEstudentscholarship@gmail.com by October 1, 2018.

The NBCE Scholarship competition is administered by an outside corporation, Brighthall. All questions about the competition should be directed to Dr. Claire Johnson at NBCEstudentscholarship@gmail.com