

Subject: Last Chance to Shape the Future of Chiropractic: Survey Closing Soon!

Hi [Chiropractor's Name],

Time is running out! We want to ensure your voice is heard before it's too late.

The National Board of Chiropractic Examiners' Practice Analysis Survey, which is instrumental in shaping the future of chiropractic practice, is closing in less than a week. This is your final opportunity to contribute your valuable insights and help drive our profession forward.

By participating in the survey, you'll play a vital role in defining the skills, behaviors, and conditions that influence success in chiropractic care. Your input will directly impact the development of NBCE's Part III and Part IV test plans, inform crucial chiropractic research projects, and influence legislation vital to our profession's advancement.

Don't miss out on this chance to make a difference. Click
